

EXECUTIVE PAPER

WIUT VISA AND REGISTRATION REGULATION (VRR).

According to the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan, foreign citizens can enter Uzbekistan for long-term stay based on entrance visas only, excluding citizens of those countries that have bilateral visa free regime with Uzbekistan.

WIUT in its daily activities possesses the strong commitment to obey and fulfill laws, rules and regulations that have been adopted in Uzbekistan along with those adopted world widely.

WIUT's Visa and Registration Regulation (VRR) should provide the clarity and transparency of the processes of Visa and Registration issuance as well as guarantee its accordance to both international and national legislations.

VRR applies to WIUT's international staff (including spouses and dependent children) and international students. It covers such areas as Visa and Registration issuance and its extension, WIUT's support and related due dates. The International Department of WIUT provides visa and registration support to international staff and students.

1. General Overview

1.1. General order of the VISA ISSUANCE in Uzbekistan

Foreign citizens can get visas at the diplomatic representations and consular missions of the Republic of Uzbekistan abroad based on the confirmation (generated telex codes) of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Uzbekistan <https://gov.uz/en/mfa>.

Note: Different procedure for issuance of entry visas may be applied towards citizens of those countries that have appropriate bilateral agreements with Uzbekistan.
